A DOUBLE KILLING.

A Deputy Sheriff and a Regro Shot by Saloon Man at Caldwell.

Special to the Gazette. CALDWELL, TRX., May 10 .- About 5 o'clock last evening Ben B. Hunt, a prominent saloon keeper here, shot and killed the day, with the exception of the first Deputy Sheriff Jack Farr and a negro bout. The improved feeling of yesterday named Sandy Davis. It seems that Farr and Hunt becamed involved in a quarrel about an hour before the shooting took place, but were separated before they could do sny damage. Mutual friends tried to patch up the quarrel between the men. It seems, however, that they were not successful, and Farr persisted in and there was marked walking down towards Hunt's sa con.

Just as he reached the sidewalk Hunt's red the bears removed their pressured at him with a Winchester shotgun. ared at him with a Winchester shotgun, spre toward 1 o'clock and a better feeling but failed to hit him. 32%c. The much for for morning. Government of the mark of part on the min as of trade to cut. bir flow on the mark of part of the pit. This was tollegen in the easier and elsewhere had taken wheat in May with view of unloading with profit on this report, Again professional traders discounted the effect by bulling the market yesterday. Still again, the country did not come in with a real to sustain the temporary bulge, and flash and tumble all in one hour was the result. There was a further dip in prices a few minutes before the close, and July sold at 85%c; June at 84%c and December at 87%c?c. In corn to-day the range of prices during the first hour was the range of the day. The pit was a function of the day. The pit was consequently light. The feeling, however, was rathe firmer and the opening pr
